SUMMARY:

On Saturday July 12th 2008 at approximately 5:58 A.M, officers were dispatched to Whitesail and Beacon Bay in regards to a vehicle burglary in progress. The reporting party called 911 reporting that a suspect had just broken into one of their neighbor's vehicles. The reporting party maintained observation and directed responding police units to the area he was last seen. Officers arrived on scene and located a subject, later identified as Derik Miller, matching the description of the suspect. Upon contact with Miller, officers located property belonging to 6 different victims, all within the same neighborhood. Miller was arrested for multiple counts of vehicle burglary and theft.

The investigation is on-going and no further information was available at the time of this press release.
